

WEEKEND GETAWAYS

WINTER

FRIDAY Visit Blue Heron Brewpub and order the oven-baked, super satisfying Grown Up Mac 'N Cheese —it's made with six cheeses! Wash it down with a grown up beverage like the Heart Hop IPA, brewed in-house.

SATURDAY Enjoy a perfectly crafted latte and delectable pastry at Uptown Coffee Company.

Take care of your holiday shopping at the variety of eclectic stores in downtown Marshfield.

In the afternoon, head to nearby Powers Bluff County Park, a winter playground for all ages. View the wildlife or take a run down the ski and tubing hills, conditions permitting.

Warm up at a table at a perennial Best of Marshfield favorite, Nutz Deep II. Indulge in creations like the cheese curd burger, which is topped with hand-battered curds!

End the night at the spectacle of Rotary Winter Wonderland, Central Wisconsin's largest holiday lights display, starting the day after Thanksgiving through New Year's Eve.

SUNDAY Kick off your day with some fresh air on Marshfield's trails—snowshoeing, fat tire biking and cross-country skiing.

Relax at Hotel Marshfield with a rejuvenating dip in the enchanting outdoor spas or unique barrel sauna in the courtyard.

SPRING

FRIDAY Catch a concert by a nationally-known artist at The Vox, which showcases big-city music with a small-town vibe.

SATURDAY Order an omelet and see why the locals love breakfast at The Daily Grind on Central Avenue.

Enjoy a hike and marvel at the massive flocks of migratory birds at the George W. Mead Wildlife Area or the McMillan Marsh Wildlife Area.

Visit the Wildwood Zoo Welcome Center, where kids can create April showers with a hands-on water table (rain coats available).

Meet your family and friends at downtown's Escape Room Marshfield and see if you can beat the clock!

Check out the amazing knife skills featured in the Teppanyaki dinner and show while enjoying a glass of sake at Royal Tokyo, a cozy restaurant tucked into the historic Soo Line Train Station building.

SUNDAY Play an early-season round of golf at Marshfield Country Club or RiverEdge Golf Course.

SUMMER

FRIDAY On Friday evenings, order a seasonal pizza and an organic wine or craft beer at Pizza on the Farm at Stoney Acres Farm, located north of Marshfield, near Athens.

SATURDAY Join the locals for a homemade breakfast at The Kitchen Table, a Marshfield morning staple since 1977.

Make a splash at Wenzel Family Plaza as the kids leap through the bursting jets of the water feature.

Get your licks in at Hub City Ice Cream Company with some Chocolate Shoppe ice cream on the patio.

For dinner, enjoy a bacon, broccoli, and cheese pizza, a specialty of Scotty's Pizza & Chicken (voted Best Pizza in Marshfield 11 years running).

As the day winds down, enjoy a stroll at Wildwood Park & Zoo. Watch the sun set over a field of grazing buffalo, get a cat's-eye view of the cougars from inside the new Welcome Center, and say goodnight to our twin Kodiak bears.

SUNDAY A trip to Marshfield is never complete until you visit Clyde and Nancy Wynia at Jurustic Park to see the "excavated remains" of creatures from the Iron Age.

FALL

FRIDAY Enjoy a relaxing scenic drive to an authentic, countryside Amish market and take in the array of breathtaking fall color. To see our fall color report, go to visitmarshfield.com.

SATURDAY Surprise the kids with a wet and wild adventure at the indoor waterpark at the Holiday Inn & Conference Center.

Learn about the fascinating fruit that's produced in the heart of Central Wisconsin. Schedule a youth-guided tour of the cranberry bogs with Splash of Red Cranberry Tours in nearby Pittsville, featuring a cranberry-themed lunch.

Get lost in the corn maze at Seehafer Farms. Be sure to stock up on a variety of Wisconsin cheeses and sample a dozen flavors of ice cream.

SUNDAY Before checking out of the Holiday Inn & Conference Center, enjoy a taste of Marshfield with brunch at The Rivers. After brunch, go on a historic walking tour through Marshfield to learn about the community's intriguing past.

For more ideas to fill your weekend, visit us online at VISITMARSHFIELD.COM